JUNEAU – Due to popular demand, the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation (APFC) has extended public comment to February 14, 2024 on the proposed strategic plan. The Board of Trustees encourages Alaskans to continue providing input. The Strategic Plan will be before the Board for adoption during the quarterly meeting on February 15-16, 2024.

"We want to ensure Alaskans are given the opportunity to give comments and feedback as we approach the adoption of an updated strategic plan for the Alaska Permanent Fund Corporation. The new plan will set the direction and outline key initiatives for the Corporation moving forward," remarks, Deven Mitchell, Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director for APFC.
